

SCC Academy Student Recruitment Award Program

This program is designed to encourage people who have a heart to see Christian education grow in South Jersey and more specifically Salem County Christian Academy. A $300 monetary recruitment award will be given to any person who recommends a new Student Family to the Academy and they enroll, are accepted, and attend for at least 2 semesters.

RULES

- “New Student” is defined as a student or student family that has never attended Salem County Christian Academy at present or in the past.
- “New Student Family” is defined as an immediate family never having had any children attending the Academy present or past. I.E. you cannot recommend a brother or sister of a student already attending the Academy.
- The Incentive award is not a per student award. It is a per Student Family award. The recruitment award is $300 regardless of how many students attend from the student family. Number of students per family does not change the award value.
- Recruited Student must attend the Academy for at least 2 semesters and tuition for those semesters paid in full, before recruitment award is disbursed.
- Recruitment award is disbursed during the month of June.

Please contact the office for any questions you may have. Please have the incoming student family let the administration know when enrolling that they have been recommended by you. If possible, please provide them with an SCC Academy Recruitment Card with your name, address, email and phone number. This will help the Academy disburse your award on time. To get an SCC Academy Recruitment Card please contact the Academy office with the information below, or go to our website and click on the Student Recruitment link on the home page.
